A Legacy of Giving

When I arrived at Community Foundation of North Louisiana in late 2017, I felt confident, yet humbled, to take the helm of an organization with a long history of effective and transparent philanthropic stewardship. I owe this legacy to the many employees, directors, and donors who came before me. We stand on their shoulders now to fulfill our mission of enhancing our community through philanthropy.

Each year when CFNLA awards nonprofit grants through a competitive grants process, we have the pleasure of presenting the grants in person to the prevailing organizations and their boards. We use that time to reflect on the amazing work of the nonprofit grantee. We also recognize the important partnership formed between CFNLA and the grantee, which in some cases goes back decades.

I personally treasure grant presentations as a time to tell the grantee organization and its board about the donor or donors who made the grant possible. We highlight the philanthropy of the donors, their many lifetime achievements and even personal anecdotes about what made them special. This keeps us connected with donors even long after they are no longer with us.

Since 1961, CFNLA has been working with donors to ensure they achieve their personal philanthropic legacy. Many funds started by donors decades ago have now granted more than the original donation to the fund. This truly enables their legacies to live on in perpetuity.

When I think about my own legacy at Community Foundation, my greatest hope is simply to better the lives of North Louisiana children.

Sincerely,
Kristi Gustavson

A Legacy of Stewardship

In legal terminology a “legacy” is a gift of property, especially personal property, such as money, by will or bequest. Generally, a legacy is anything handed down from the past, as from an ancestor or predecessor. As the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Community Foundation of North Louisiana, I am honored to continue the legacy of philanthropic stewardship created and maintained by the board members who served before me.

Along with CFNLA staff, the Board ensures the generous donations received are invested and granted to respond to the most pressing community needs. We do this by pairing those needs with evidence-based nonprofit programs that are able to demonstrate effective outcomes. This process ultimately yields the most positive results for our community.

The CFNLA Board works tirelessly to continue our legacy as the trusted stewards of North Louisiana’s largest endowment. We cannot do this work alone and are thankful for the many generous donors and hardworking nonprofit partners we work with daily. In working alongside all our philanthropic partners, we will continue the Community Foundation’s legacy to build a stronger and more vibrant North Louisiana.

Thank you to all past and present members of the Board of Community Foundation and to all our partners in philanthropy!

Sincerely,
Jerry Edwards, Jr.

Donors to the Foundation ensure our community has a flexible and reliable source of philanthropic resources — today and for the future. As every donor is unique, there are a number of ways to partner with CFNLA. Donors listed below gave a minimum of $200 in 2023 either by making a new donation to a fund or becoming a Sustaining Member of the Foundation. Together, the following individuals, families, and organizations gave more than $10 million in 2023. Not reflected here are the 4,412 donors who gave a collective $2.75 million to 207 nonprofits through Give For Good 2023. We are deeply grateful to each of them for their generosity and commitment to strengthening community.

A Legacy Soars | Judith Crow McColgan

Philanthropy is more than charity. While charity is generous giving, philanthropy addresses the root cause of social issues and requires a more strategic long-term approach. Philanthropy is inspired by generosity coupled with a desire to improve the overall quality of life. It stems from a deep commitment to community. Effective philanthropy requires strategic investment in evidence-based programming with measurable outcomes and sustainability. When working with donors, CFNLA strives to marry our strategic expertise with a donor's desire to better the community. This marriage led Judith Crow McColgan to make a bequest to the Community Foundation.

When Judy passed away in 2022, CFNLA staff and Directors were deeply privileged to receive a generous gift from her estate. To honor her memory and wishes, CFNLA established the Judith Crow McColgan Memorial Fund, an endowed, unrestricted fund distributed through CFNLA's Competitive Grants process. According to her husband, Dr. Bill McColgan, Judy understood the benefits of leaving a legacy gift to the Foundation. She knew it would provide a continuous and growing source of support for the community she loved.

A Legacy Soars | Judith Crow McColgan

As a lifelong resident of Shreveport, Judy was deeply invested in her home and wanted it to thrive. She was a passionate supporter of the arts, attending many Shreveport Symphony Orchestra and Shreveport Opera performances. In addition to being an ardent supporter of the Shreveport Opera, she served as a member and officer of the Board of Directors for many years. She was a Sustaining Member of the Junior League of Shreveport-Bossier and volunteered with Shreveport Green. She believed in the power of education which led her to become a founding member of the Women's Philanthropy Network, Shreveport's first female giving circle. Judy helped shape the WPN by serving on the Steering Committee and maintaining her annual membership. She furthered her commitment in 2019 by becoming a WPN Lifetime Member.

Judy's philanthropic legacy is only one of the ways she left a mark on the world. She is remembered for her bold, adventurous, and accomplished life. With every endeavor, she exceeded expectations, embodying the expression "the sky is the limit". She was a highly skilled aerobatic pilot, earning her pilot's license at 16 years old. As an avid outdoors person, Judy enjoyed fishing and hunting, riding her bicycle, and horseback riding with her husband, Bill. She was a master gardener with an impressive flower and asparagus garden at her beloved home on Gold Point Island. As much as they enjoyed spending time together on their beautiful property, Judy and Bill also enjoyed traveling and had many fascinating experiences around the world.

Judy and her husband, Bill McColgan

Perhaps one of the biggest impressions Judy leaves is on her beloved husband Bill. Since her passing we have had the honor to work with Bill to solidify Judy's philanthropic legacy. With each conversation, Bill's admiration and love for Judy is unequivocal. Getting to know Judy through the eyes of Bill is a unique privilege we do not take for granted.

With each conversation, Bill's admiration and love for Judy is unequivocal. Getting to know Judy through the eyes of Bill is a unique privilege we do not take for granted.

Like Judy's limitless spirit, the Judith Crow McColgan Memorial Fund will have a profound impact for generations to come. To perpetuate Judy's legacy, CFNLA will select grantees aligned with her charitable interests and share her story annually with grantees. Thank you, Judy, for trusting Community Foundation to carry out your philanthropic legacy.

Women's Philanthropy Network

A fund of Community Foundation of North Louisiana

The Women's Philanthropy Network (WPN) is a dynamic community of caring women who are dedicated to enhancing the lives of children in Caddo Parish. Founded in 2005, the WPN was established as a way for local women of all generations and philanthropic capacity to leverage their charitable giving to address pressing issues in the community. Through the power of collective philanthropy, the members make a greater impact than they could individually.

The Power of Collective Philanthropy

Each year, WPN members pool their annual dues and award a high-impact grant to a nonprofit focused on improving school readiness and student achievement. As an advised fund at CFNLA, 80% of annual dues are granted in the donation year while 20% are invested in the WPN Endowment Fund for future grants. The endowment, currently valued at over $580,000, ensures future grant availability and builds a lasting legacy for the WPN.

2023 WPN Grantee

Volunteers for Youth Justice: The Harbor

The WPN awarded $90,000 to Volunteers for Youth Justice (VYJ) to support The Harbor, VYJ's new comprehensive community-based resource center. The Harbor is a collaborative effort with Caddo Parish School Board and Caddo Parish Juvenile Court to address the needs of families in crisis. The Harbor houses various programs under one roof. This allows families and children convenient access to services such as: mental health counseling; physical, occupational, and speech therapies; basic needs assistance; truancy services; domestic violence and child abuse advocacy; workforce development; and more.

The WPN has awarded over $1.4 million to educational initiatives in our community since its inception in 2005.
