

The Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) is a federally funded, locally administered program designed to create an employment and training system dedicated to improving the quality of employment services provided to employers and citizens of Northwest Louisiana. A state and local community partnership, WIOA provides its workforce development programs through American Job Centers. CDC, in conjunction with the Workforce Development Board (WDB) administers the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) program in Northwest Louisiana (excluding the City of Shreveport).
